Manuscript Collection	MC9	Jose Simeon Sanchez, 1797 - 1853		This collection contains valuable records dating back to 1790. Also included is the marriage contract from 1787 between Francisco Xavier Sanchez and the parents of Maria del Carmen Hill. The Bible included in the collection served as a record for the births and deaths of members of the family such as the Lorings and the Oates'. The correspondence deals mainly with Jose Simeon's activities as a politician and public server. The most significant subjects covered in this collection are the claims for the war of 1812-1813, land grants, real estate sales, mortgages, elections, tax collections, census, statistics, sale of slaves and politics. There is also personal correspondence, financial reports, records of money transactions, tax collector receipts and marshall documents in this collection.
Manuscript Collection	MC31	The Patriot War Papers and Patriot War Claims (1812 - 1846)	On loan from the Clerk of the Circuit Court of St. Johns County.	As processed, the collection is divided into four major parts; covering the period from May 1812 to October 1814: 1) The first part contains 42 folders (MC31-1 to MC31-42), and is made up of the correspondence between the Spanish government of East Florida and the American Commissioners from March 1812 to April 1813. This portion also contains an anonymous summary of the events of this conflict. 2) The second part contains 53 folders (MC31-43 to MC31-96) and consists of the documents relating to the filing of claims for loss of property by the Spanish subjects due to actions of the American troops. It also includes the correspondence between the United States Secretary of the Treasury and the lawyers & judges that dealt with the claims. It also contains an excellent inventory of what claims were awarded and which were not, up to 1840. 3) The third part is a legal document written in Havana, Cuba in 1845, as a petition from an attorney which deals with the Spanish laws of trade (MC31-97). The petitioner wanted to make use of Spanish laws in an American court of law, but in order to do so he needed certified copies of the Spanish laws. 4) The fourth part is comprised of 9 folders (MC31-98 to M31-106). The first 8 of these folders deal with a civil case covering the period from May 1812 to October 1814, and deals with the return of slaves captured by the Spanish from the insurgents during a raid on the insurgent camp in May 1812. The 9th folder deals with a land grant for services rendered during the 1812 - 1813 rebellion.
